One of the most amazing things about being a dancer is finding your dance family; the people you train with who make you feel like you have an artistic home. You're not born into this family; instead, you meet them by way of dance class. They will inspire you, encourage you help you excel at dance and in life! At Absolute Dance, we understand the importance of a dance family and the impact it has on you and your child. Our staff, students and parents have allowed our dance family to thrive.
